America After 3PM surveyed parents in Kansas to examine how children spend the hours between 3 and 6 p.m.—the hours after school ends and before parents typically return home from work. It highlights the trends in afterschool program participation, documents the benefits associated with participation in afterschool programs, and measures public support for afterschool programs.

America After 3PM revealed that 70,407 children (14%) in Kansas participate in an afterschool program, yet 132,731 children (31%) would be enrolled in a program if one were available to them.

With 70% of Kansas’s parents satisfied with their child’s afterschool program and 65% agreeing that afterschool programs give working parents peace of mind, more work needs to be done to ensure that all children in Kansas are able to take part in an afterschool program that keeps them safe, inspires learning and supports working parents.

ABOUT THE SURVEY

The percentages and projected numbers of children and families in America After 3PM are based on survey responses from parents. The Afterschool Alliance contracted with Shugoll Research to collect the data. Nationally, 30,720 households were screened, and 13,709 households completed in-depth interviews via an online survey using a blend of national consumer panels. At least 200 households completed interviews in every state and the District of Columbia, between Feb. 28 and April 17, 2014. In Kansas 200 households and 606 children were screened for this study. Child-level statewide projections and total school enrollment numbers are based on 2011-2012 Department of Education, National Center for Education Statistics. Total school enrollment for Kansas is 495,827. For additional information about America After 3PM, visit: http://afterschoolalliance.org/AA3PM.
